PE-33

ST. JOHNS CHURCH. This little Episcopal Church, erected in 1741, is the oldest church in Richmond. Here in 1775 Patrick Henry delivered his famous "Liberty or Death" oration. In the cemetery are buried many famous people, among them are, Elizabeth Arnold Poe, mother of Edgar Allen Poe, and George Wythe, professor of the first law course in America at the College of William and Mary.

Kodachrome Reproductions—L. B. Prince Co., Box 121, Arlington, Va.

STAMP

ADDRESS